About This Game

Possibility to choose size of cube from 3^3 to 9^3 .

The choice of complexity from 1 to 9 (a certain analogue of the probability of an empty cell from 10% to 90%).

As the level of complexity increases, several solutions appear, but only the one that was originally generated will be true!
Since In this version of Sudoku there is a choice of size, the rule of small composite squares 3×3 as part of a full 9×9 does not actual.

There are ghost cubes that confuse and turn the numbers. Although, thanks to the scanner, they are easily detected. The scanner is available only once in the current session, which trains the photographic memory well.
